Clicking the needles

All your time spent fashioning
Your style to a fashion
All the while nothing seems to fit
Your thread runs short

Weave your characters into tails
Hide behind handbags on the sale
Hear the sound clicking needles knitting time

Wrote the plan on a beer soaked coaster
Now in hand meanings drenched away
Accidental interruptions breaking down
Leave your mark oh so quietly stand so long
It's a small world now my steps have grown

What you've done with the time that you had
Has brought you here with all that you know
What you've done with the time that you had
Has brought you here with all that you know

All that you know
