

Jon Kenzie

Half Pipe Dream

*What the hell am I doing
Still in this space
How the hell did I get so far
At my own pace*

*I've been flung out of
A half pipe dream.*

*Gibberish rhymes is all I hear
I run skip and fumble behind
I can't find the cash to pay the price
But ill always find some to pay my vice*

*I've been flung out of
A half pipe dream
And everybody knows
Im living beyond my means*

*Bottomed out of life
Topped up with love
He doesn't seem right
But his hat sure does
I swallowed my pride
To get it stuck in my throat
And twice a week on Tuesday
She blows the float*

*Ive been flung out of
A half pipe dream
Abd everybody knows
Im living beyond my means
Ive been flung out of
A half pipe dream
Everybody knows
Im living beyond my means*
