

Jon Kenzie

If I ever did find

All my memories allude me
So how am I to find
Inspiration in the water
Like pirates of my mind
In quiet desperation
I release my grip
So I might know how it feels
If I ever did find

If I ever did find
Would I know it
Would I know
If I ever did find
Would I know it
Would I know

Can I convince you to join me
Listening to the ways
The people and their stories
Play out every day
In quiet contemplation
We may find the key
So we might know how it feels
If we ever did find

If I ever did find
Would we know it
Would we know
If I ever did find
Would I know it
Would I know
If I ever did find
Would I know it
Would I know
