Silly little thing

She's a silly little thing always waiting in the wings with no one around to confide her feet hold firmly in the line

The cannon shoots her out as the beat fears to stop she's hearing all about the winds of change are blowing out

Oh such a silly thing she's waiting in the wings of her

Sleepy little town where all the young boys run around she can say what she means there's no pressure to believe In her sleepy little town she'll come on in leaps and bounds you can see all the signs left behind look for her there

Held in a big black picture book That's still hanging on the wall it's never had a second look since the warrior kings fall now the first frost has come its shining brightly from their guns she' always feared to walk alone their always there to take her home she's such a silly thing waiting in the wings of her

where all the young boys run around
look for her there*

she can say what she means
she makes the young boys run around
you can see all the signs left behind
look for her there*
