Step and stumble

Its been a long day
My feet won't walk and my tongues dry
I need to fill my boots
So I step and stumble in an old dive
There's a stool with my name
So I squeeze to the bar to get red eyed
Then I hear the sound
The duke box playing
While the people falling down
Their smashing tables to the ground
There's someone shouting out

Leave me alone
There aint no way im going back home

So strike up a word
With a man without looking at his face
While the band can't be heard
You can bet their keeping pace
Well its bottles up all round
Until the lights are slowly dimming down

And then I turned around
I realised that my hat was on fire
I was talking to a lier
My drink had expired

Leave me alone
There aint no way im going back home

Aint no way im going back home
Aint no way im going back home

Leave me alone
There aint no way im going back home
